

Gifts Policy

Gifts of books and other library materials are gratefully accepted by the Library with the understanding that they will be considered for addition to the collection in accordance with the materials selection policy.

Donated materials must meet the same standards as other materials for inclusion in the collection. All gifts will be reviewed by the librarian in charge of that area of the collection.

The Library reserves the right to sell or otherwise dispose of gift materials not added to the collection. The Library will not accept any materials which are not outright gifts.

Gifts of funds are always welcome. Recommendations from the donor are honored when in accord with the materials selection policy. All gifts are accepted with the understanding that at some point in the future it may be necessary to deselect the item(s).
